Award winning Leighton Hall is the lived in home of the Gillow Reynolds family.

Guided house tours are informal and entertaining. There are no roped off areas and visitors are invited to sit on the furniture, touch things, relax and really get involved.

Children are always welcome and there is plenty for them to do.

In August, there are extra activities for children to enjoy. Outside there is a play area, bee corner, insect hotel and caterpillar maze. They can also follow the tree face trail and enjoy brass rubbings in the woods.

Birds of prey fly on open days (May to Sept only, weather permitting) at 3:30pm.

Outside there is a woodland walk and acres of gardens. An ornamental vegetable plot and herb garden pavilion, stand within an abundant 19th century walled garden. Refreshments are served in Leighton's charming tearooms.
